

Knowledgebase > Billing and Payments > What is my client being charged per session?

---

What is my client being charged per session?

Customer Success Liaison - 2020-06-01 - in Billing and Payments

Therapy Live provides you with the control and freedom to choose wherever and whenever you would like to practice in addition to determining your own services, fees, and availability. Your clients pay for your services when they book an appointment and after you have approved their requested service. You can decide if you would like to schedule clients in traditional in-office visits or unlimited telehealth sessions. You have the ability to maintain your session notes and receive payments all in the same place. In short, you set your own pricing and we provide you the platform with the tools to effectively run your practice.